LINCOLNWOOD LEDGEND

Barbara Ann Riemann

Day by day, another year quickly passed through the halls of Lincolnwood. For every hour that passed by, we grew a bit older by learning and by reaching out and finding new experiences. The school year 1972-73 is gone, but the fond memories with our classmates, teachers, and friends are not forgotten. Open up your hearts, let your thoughts be free and take one last look at these colorful memories portrayed in the Lincolnwood Legend of 1973.

WHAT CAN YOU SAY ABOUT A MAN

WHO DEDICATED HIMSELF SO DEEPLY TO HIS JOB,

WHO LOVED HIS STUDENTS,

WHO WORKED FOR A CAUSE TO MAKE US YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN AND

WHO HELPED MAKE LINCOLNWOOD WHAT IT IS TODAY?

TO YOU MR. BENNING,

WE THANK YOU FOR CONCERN, AND

WE WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER YOU AS AN OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1973

KENNY TRULOCK

We never forget when one of our classmates is no longer with us. We only learn how to accept it and live with the thought. Kenny died during the summer of 1970, and we missed him, but as we grew older, and lived each day, Kenny never left us. We remembered him in our hearts every minute of those days and we always shall.

Best wishes Barb
Sure enjoyed having you in Bible Class
